REMINISCENSES OF OUR PIONEER DAYS

Gleanings From the Records Left By Men Who Laid the Foundation of Our County.

Although the reputation of San Mateo County for the peace and quiet of its residents appears to have been excellent during most of its history up to the year 1870, the people of the town of San Mateo seemed to be the objective point of the majority of the law breakers, and the residents of the hamlet began to realize the necessity for some place close at hand in which to confine the criminal element when they became over boisterous. With this end in view, a petition headed by Robert Trumbull and J. E. Skidmore and rather numerously signed, was presented to the Board of Supervisors at their meeting on April 6, 1870, praying for the erection at the town of a jail "for the security of prisoners and the detention of law breakers." As the Supervisors doubted their right to furnish the town with a special lockup, the petition was-referred to the District Attorney, and apparently was pigeon holed in his office, as it was never acted upon.

Charles N. Fox and Edward Bennett, two of the prominent citizens of if this town "enjoyed" a rather startling experience on the evening of April 10th, while on their way to San Francisco, traveling by team. Just as they were ascending the hill at the Six-mile House on the San Brunoturnpike they were confronted by a couple of highwaymen, who covered them with their guns and compelled them to dismount from the rig while they rifled their pockets. Fox was relieved of $155 in cash and $12 was secured from his companion. The men also took a gold watch from the pocket of Mr. Fox, but as upon opening it they discovered the portrait of his wife upon the dial, they remarked that it was probably a present which he valued very highly and they would not be so ungerenous as to deprive him of a keep sake and returned the time piece. They pocketed the coin and disappared and were not found afterwards.

A notable time in the history of Bay View Lodge, I, O, O. F., as well asx other Odd Fellows residing in this vicinity was the evening of April 6th, 1870, when the Lodge received an official visit from E. D. Farnsworth of Tennessee, the Grand Sire of the Order. On this visit the Grand Sire was accompanied by two otehr notable perosnages, in the persons of Grand Master J. B. Harmon and Grand Secretary T. Rodgers Johnson of the Grand Lodge of California. Considerable preparation had been made for the reception of the distinguished visitor, as at that time the State seldom had the honor of a visit from the head of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and there was a large assemblage of members of the Order in the hall of the Lodge. After the meeting in the lodge room, where the business of the Order was discussed by the visiting officials, the members to the number of something over 100 adjourned to the Welborn Restaurant where a sumptuous banquet was served, and at which an address to the public was made by the Grand Sire. Among the guests of the Lodge were a number of the members of Ocean Lodge of Spanishtown.

Advocates of woman suffrage were active in this vicinity at this time although it would appear that their efforts met with but decidedly unsatisfactory success. Early in April of this year, Mrs. Laura DeForce Gordon, at that time one of the noted National advocates of the movement, delivered a public address at the Court house in this city, but although the meeting had been well advertised it was found impossible to gather an audience of exceeding 50 people. In commenting of the rather slim attendance, the editor of the Gazette remarked: "The thing don' flourish well in the adobe soil peculiar to this region."

In commenting upon the improvements being made at Menlo Park in the issue of the Gazette of April 16th, 1870, editor Schofield said, "We were not a little surprised to see the improvements Dick Kuck has made in his hotel. The grounds surrounding the hotel are quite extensive and have been laid out artistically. The garden is well filled with flowers and shrubbery, and stately oaks afford an abundance of shade in the summer. The store which formerly occupied a portion of the lower floor has been removed to Kuck's new store on the county road and the room that was used for the store is being fitted up for a billiard and bar room."

The annual election for town officers of Redwood City was held on May 2d with no contest for the offices. Although there was but one ticket in the field, some cute joker started a movement on the morning of the election which came near producing embarassing and unsatisfactory results. At that time there was but one colored man residing in San Mateo county, J. Lewis and his home was in this town, the wag suggested to some of his friends that it would be a good joke to give him a few votes. The idea seemed to take with the crowd to such an extent that several of them could not keep the suggestion to themselves but noised the joke about among others until when the votes were counted it was found that Lewis lacked but 35 votes of enough to have been elected. The officials elected were: John C. Edgar, marshal; W. P. Wallace, treasurer; J. V. Diller, S. S. Merrill, John Crowley, H. Kincaid and L. A. Parsons, trustees. Although Lewis was not given the honor of an election as a town official, he was not long denied the right of doing public duty, for the following week he was summoned as one of the members of a jury in Justice of the Peace Jewell's court.

CORBIN TAKES BRIDE

Aged Pescader Capitalist is Married at San Francisco.

Lorea Coburn, the Pescadero millionaire landowner, aged 84, who has just been restored to his property, and his sister-in-law, Miss Sarah Upton, aged 60, were married in San Francisco Monday night. Thus has romance at last entered into the long and tempestuous career of the hardy old capitalist.

Twenty years ago the first Mrs. Coburn, on her death bed, requested that her sister and her husband should wed. During the two decades that have passed the late bride attended Wallace Coburn, a life cripple. The wedding was postponed from time to time, but at last, to conserve property rights, it has taken place.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alex. Eaton. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Isador Levin, Mrs. Rose Paine, Miss Olive Craig, J. Early Craig, A. J. Treat, M. E. Levy, all intimate friends of the contracting parties. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Coburn went to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Levin, 1060 Ellis street, and within a short time will go to the Coburn home near Pescadero.

The bridegroom is a county pioneer whose life has been largely one of litigation over land, his holdings embracing nearly 30,000 acres situated in this and other counties. Two years ago the old man's nephew, Azro Coburn of Holyoke, Massachusetts, began an action in the superior court to have the old capitalist declared incompetent in which he was successful and Carl J. Coburn was appointed his guardian.

The supreme court reversed the verdict of the superior court and the case was sent back for retrial. On February 8th last Coburn brought suit in the United States circuit court in San Francisco to recover $350,000 from Azro for injuries to his name and property. This case is still pending.

"I look as though I could take care of myself, don't I?" he asked after the wedding. "I feel as sound mentally and physically as I did forty years ago. Do any of you kids want to come out to the street and run a foot race with me? I expect to enjoy life for a long time yet."

The bride, originally from Fitchburg, Mass., has been a member of the Coburn family since before the first Mrs. Coburn's death, devoting most of her time to caring for Coburn's son, Wallace, a helpless cripple. She has quite a fortune in her own right and has been an adviser of Coburn in the care of his property. The nephews have more than once importuned her to take sides against their uncle, but these requests have had no other effect than making her oppose them in their contentions with renewed vigor.

CITY COUNCIL HOLDS ADJOURNED SESSION

Too Much Cash Causes Worry In Minds of Guardians of Municipal Affairs.

The stringent interpretation which it has been insisted should be placed upon the provisions of the Municipal Deposit Act, is causing the city officials no little worry and will put the town to a considerable expense. All this because the city has more money on hand just now than it knows what to do with. Treasurer Towne does not wish to assume the responsibility for the care of the large amount of extra cash—something over $100,000. The banks, both here and in San Francisco decline to accept the money under the conditions imposed by the statute, and will have nothing to do with it under any other conditions. The best means of meeting this troublesome problem occupied considerable of the time of the Trustees at the adjourned meeting of the Council Monday evening, when Chairman Merrill stated that Baldwin & Howell were ready to pay over to the Treasurer the purchase price of the Dingee Park street improvement bonds, and suggested that both for the safety of the city and the Treasurer some means of guarding against possible loss should be devised. Treasurer Towne stated that owing to the uncertainty of the time the money could remain on deposit, which at the utmost would be short, the local banks declined to received the money under the law and would no accept it as an ordinary deposit, and Mayor Merrill stated that he had interviewed several banks in San Francisco with the same result. The plan of securing an additional surety bond met with opposition because of the added expense to the city. To the suggestion that he might hide it under the bed in an old sock or bury it in a tin can, Treasurer Towne also demurred. As a temporary solution it was finally suggested that the money might be turned into United State gold bonds and these placed in a safe deposit box. This met with favor and Trustee Brown, chairman of the finance committee, and Treasurer Towne were given authority to take the necessary action to carry out the plan.

An ordinance providing for the issuance of the municipal improvement bonds authorized at the recent election was presented by City Attorney Mansfield and on motion of Trustee Rice was introduced and given its first reading.

In a communication, H. A. Carroll, of San Francisco, the owner of property on the corner of Main and Franklin streets, made objection to the present plan of street improvement in that section, arguing that the proposal to improve but a small portion of the Main street extension would work an injustice, involving a considerable expense without material benefit. While not opposed to street improvement, Mr. Carroll suggested that Main street was an important outlet to the surrounding country and should be opened through to the County Road and improved for the entire length. Chairman Merrill suggested that the improvement of the County Road authorized in the bond issue would leave the way clear for the extension of Main street and that this should be done. This met with approval and Clerk Plump was directed to inform Mr. Carroll of the tentative plans of the Council.

Mr. Sampson informed the Council that the Tacoma Lumber Company was ready to carry out its offer to provide without cost to the city lumber for the new bridge and land for street extend and approaches.

Mayor Merrill again referred to the continued unsatisfactory work on the the street sweeping. While improvement had been repeatedly promised he could find no change. In his opinion the plan of sweeping by machinery was faulty. The present cost to the city is approximately $100 per month, and for but little if any greater outly the work could be done much better by hand. For this he would keep two men constantly at work during the day and the litter would be removed as fast as it appeared. This would keep the streets much neater in appearance and avoid the dust which now is serious annoyance to merchants. As part of the plan the streets should be occasionally flushed, and as an experiment in this line Mr. Merrill had prepared a special apparatus which was turned over to Street Superintendent Dickie for a test. The suggestion was disussed with considerable favor.

The city engineer was instructed to prepare two maps of the proposed extensions of Phelps street, showing two slightly differing positions.

The Clerk was directed to advertise for bids for the erection of a wire fence to inclose the reservoir site.

Chairman Merrill stated that he had delayed the appointment of the committee to act with the Womans Club in preparing for a celebration of the opening of the Dumbarton bridge because of the uncertainty of the date and the expressed desire of the Club to do nothing that would interfere with the plans of the Fourth of July committee. The committe will be named during the week.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

From every indication the celebration of the coming Fourth of July in this city will be the biggest and best demonstration of this character ever witnessed in San Mateo County. From every section of the county comes assurance of hearty cooperation and the best of good wishes The people of this city owe it to themselves as well as to their neighbors, who have magnanimously waived claims to demonstrations of a similar character, to make this celebration a notable one. And from the enthusiastic manner in which the movement has been received among the people of the city it is certain that they will. Every organization as well as every individual should be ready to lend aid and doubtless will.

Time For Organization.

One of the particular needs of Redwood City at this time is an organization the especial object of which shall be the exploitation of the commercial advantages of this particular section While an organization of this character can at all times be of advantage to the advancement of a community, it is especially needed at this time, when the city is about to be placed in a position to secure more than the usual opportunities for development.

In the past we have been accustomed to rely solely upon the Merchants Board of Trade for this work, and that organization has been ready to respond as far as its abilities and conditions would warrant. In fact it is generally admitted that they have done some splendid work in this direction.

From its very nature, however, this organization is one upon which we have no right to depend for work of this character. Organized primarily with a view to the protection of the interests of the business and general regulation of the conduct of the affairs of the merchants, it cannot be expected ot have the means at its command to carry on a campaign of publicity such as is absolutely necessary, nor can its officers be expected to have the time to devote to this extra work.

True an organization such as is here suggested would number on its rolls many of the men prominent and active in the affairs of the Merchants Board of Trade, for among our merchants are to be found many of the most progressive men of the city, but there are also many others who may be expected to take an active part in this work of development. Among our resident population are many men not engaged in mercantile pursuits who are vitally interested in the business as well as the social advancement of the city. Many of these are in a position to do effective work along these lines, and doubtless some of these if offered an opportunity would be ready and glad to contribute both of their time and money for the purpose.

This is a matter which should be no longer delayed .Every owner of property in the city, every merchant and for that matter every persons who by any means gains a livelihood in Redwood City is interested in the growth and permanent advancement of the town. The time is ripe for this work, and some one should take hold of the matter without hesitation. Who ever will do so will rest assured of public support.

Within two or three months at the farthest the opening of the Dumbarton Bridge will place this city upon another direct main line of railroad communication. We have been assured also that within a short time the long desired spur track which shall give direct railway facilities to an extensve area of factory sites in the city will be constructed. These two facts alone place within our reach opportunities which should not be allowed to pass. We have unsurpassed attractions to offer, but this fact will be of no avail unless some energetic means is planned to make the opportunities known to the world.

NEWS GATHERED FROM THE COUNTY

Interesting Notes Gathered by Hustling Reporters in the Country Districts.

Woodside Happenings.

Peter Mathiesen is about to erect a handsome building on his property near Winkler and Shine's blacksmith shop. It will be used as a restaurant, billiard rooms and a place for reading. It is to be a neat structure and a credit to Woodside.

Albert Michaels, the popular clerk for Neuman Brothers, has resigned his position and will leave in a few days for Roseville, Sacramenta County, to engaged in the pool and billiard business with his brother, Louis. They are young men of steady habits and ought to do well in their undertaking. All wish them success.

The family Club of Portola are making active preparations for a big summer at the farm. Ornamental trees and shrubbery are being planted. On the first of the month tents will be erected to accommodate the large crowd that will come down from the city to while away the time at that delightful spot 'neath the wide spreading oaks and slender and tall redwoods.

The trustees will soon ask the people of this district to bond the district for the erection of a $10,000 school building. It is to be a handsome structure and a credit to the district. The growing population here needs such a structure and it is to be hoped the people will vote the bonds and thus support the trustees who are doing all they can for the school.

All fishermen here are taking down their fishing tackle and lines preparatory to the opening of the fishing season on the first of next month. All the streams are well filled with trout and fishing will be excellent this season, in fact better than ever before.

All the wealthy residents who have their suburban homes here are coming down from the city on the first of the month.

A valuable horse belonging to H. C. Tuchsen of Redwood City was killed here last Tuesday. The animal got away from the O. Johnson barn and ran to the bridge near Frank Dougherty's and jumped into the creek and was killed. It is thought the animal committed suicide.

Halfmoon Bay Notes.

One of the most pleasant affairs that has happened in this town in a social way was the surprise party given to Rev. Robertson and his niece, Miss Robertson. There were some 20 or more of the Reverened gentleman's friends and parishioners in the party paying the unannounced visit, and each of these brought some useful reminder, many of which were in the shape of household necessities. Miss Robertson was the recipient of a box containing $15 in cash.

Passing of Pioneer Woman.

The death of Mrs. Antonia Doyle, widow of the late John T. Doyle, at her home last Wednesday afternoon has caused wide spread sorrow in this community in which the good woman had resided so long. She has been failing in health since the death of her husband in 1906 and for several months had been confined to her rooms. She came here with her husband in 1856 and has continuously resided in Menlo Park, her family growing up about her. Deceased was a native of France aged 74 years. She was a woman of refinement and culture and in early life was a school teacher. Mrs. Doyle never mingled much in society preferring to give all her time and attention to her family to whom she was devoted. She was a good christian woman, a devoted Catholic, a fond mother and a loving wife. She was the oldest pioneer in this community and her many acts of charity will be recalled by all the old residents. Mrs: Doyle is survived by five sons, John, Edward, Emmett, Daniel and William Doyle and one daughter Marie Doyle. The funeral was held yesterday from the Church of the Nativity. Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery. Her son William is a prominent lawyer of Washington, D.C.

In Honor of St. Patrick.

The Parishioners of Menlo Park are making their usual efforts to commemorate the natal day of St. Patrick. The program this year will be something out of the ordinary and quite elaborate. Instead of the usual features of songs and recitations it was decided to put on the boards a little drama that would be reflective of Irish life. Many of those taking part in this play have been before the footlights before and as thoes who have attended Menlo's entertainments know have given a good account of themselves. The remaining part of the characters will make their initial bow on that evening and will show likewise to the public that in the oak surrounded village of Menlo Park are promising young men and women with plenty of Histronic ability. The drama chosen isss entitled Shaun Aroon. It typifies the troubles and sorrows of an Irish tenant and in its production requires 11 charactbrs, 3 sceness and elaborate costuming. The characters range from Dan O'Grady a sturdy old Irish farmer and his family, down toJames the irrepressible Irish servant who is brimming over with Celtic wit and humor. Throughout the play appears Sharun Aroon a roving character of light heart and lighter purse always ready to fight or make love as the occasion demands. Lord Fermoy an English Lord in this case a good hearted landlord who unfortunately is represented by a really Irish agent named Fargus O'Riordan. The plot is well worked out and united. The situations pass easily from the dramatic to the humorous, and the entire drama is a picture in relief of Irish agrarian life. During the drama cathcy Irish songs will be produced and between the acts views of Ireland and Irish music will keep the aduience entertained. Wednesday evening, March 16th is the date, and it will be a great night altogether.

HOW OTHERS VIEW THE SITUATION

Newspaper at Former Home of L. P. Behrns Discusses Grand Jury Report.

L. P. Behrens, cashier and secretary of theFirstNational Bank of Redwood City, was born and reared in the old town of Shasta. He is a brother of Charles H. Behrens of this city whom he has visited frequently.

Mr. L. P. Behrens, together with other officers of the bank of which he is cashier, have been lately the target for San Francisco papers in connection with receiving deposits of the county money. The Grand Jury, egged on by politicians, took the matter up.

The Searchlight a few days ago told, briefly how the Grand Jury had dropped its charges.

The folowing communication from the First National Bank, appearing in the San Francisco Finance and Trade, of February 18th, is a fuller explanation of the situation at the same time that is a complete vindication of the former Shastan, Cashier L. P. Behrens:

"In a previous issue of your journal we asked our friends and the public to withhold their judgment until the matter was terminated regardnig any wrong-doing on the part of our officers for accepting county funds in excess of 50 per cent of our paid-up capital and refusing to pay interest thereon. Since we had not accepted the deposit under the law of 1907 but took it as any other commercial deposit we claimed we were in no way liable. The foreman made his return to the court some two weeks before any negotiations for settlement were thought of, but for some reason no bench warrants were issued, we were never arrested, or were any of the accused ever brought into court. From this it is plain to see that the grand jury —as well as their advisers—agreed with our attorney that they were not justified in bringing the indictments.

"The grand jury having expressed confidence in the personal integrity of our officers, which is another evidence that they themselves saw the injustice of their acts and our desire to terminate a dispute and to prevent long-drawn-out litigation, after due consideration it was deemed wise to compromise the question of interest, and as taxpayers we preferred to pay the county a reasonable amount rather than pay it as fees in litigations. An amount having been agreed upon, it was paid and the grand jury recommended to the Superior Court to drop the whole matter on the grounds of insufficient evidence to convict anyone of wrong-doing, which was carried out, and thereby removing any reflection against our officers.

"Thus has been exploded what the San Francisco press would have you believe was a corrupt attempt to evade an honest issue or that the county treasurer or our officers were civilly or criminally liable, and it is only to be regretted that the law hampers the circulation of public funds and thereby contracts the business of the counties. L. P. Behrens, cashier." — Searchlight, Redding, Shasta County, Cal.

The Orland Register also speaks of Mr. Behrens in most flattering terms. He resided in Orland and was engaged in business there before coming to Redwood City. The Register refers to him as "an honest, upright and highly respectable citizen." However, Mr. Behrens needs no vindication for the people of this community, who have known him for the past twenty years have faith in his integrity, honesty and ability as a business man and his uprightness and fairness as a citizen. He has always been foremost in matters pretaining to the public welfare, takirg a prominent part in all town improvements and school affairs. He has been president of the high school board for several years, a position he has filed with honor to himself and credit to the school. Mr. Rehrens' career in Redwood City is one that he may well feel proud of.

Dr. J. L. Ross, the president of the First National Bank, needs no exoneration. He has the confidence of the whole people irrespective of creed, class or political affiliation. The greater portion of his active life has been spent here and all have learned to love and respect him for his worth, public spirit and generosity. Dr. Ross has gained an eminence in his profession that any man might envy, has endeared himself in the hearts of the people and won a praiseworthy position in his dealngs with his fellow men. Few men in the county are more esteemed and none are more thought of than Dr. Ross. His honesty and integrity are by words among business men and his honor above reproach.

These were Mrs. Sherman Gardiner, Mrs. Emmett, Mrs. Geo. C. Ross, Belmont: Mrs. John Farnham, Miss Farnham, Mrs. T. G. Phelps, Miss McLean, Mrs Sneath and Mrs. Harrison, San Carlos: Mrs C. E. LEAGUERS FIRE THE FIRST GUN

Members of Good Government League Name Candidates for City Offices.

At what must certainly be characterized as a decidedly harmonius meeting the members of the Good Government League fired the first gun in the coming campaign for the selection of city officers Thursday evening. While the members were rather slow in gathering and thus delayed the opening of the meeting slightly, no time was lost in completing the business in hand once the assemblage was called to order. The meeting, which was an open one, was held in the small hall of theOddFellowsBuilding, which was comfortably filled.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the meeting was called to order by E H. Sampson, the president of the League, who without particular comment announced the business of the meeting to be the nomination of a municipal ticket for the April election, stating that the offices to be filled were two Trustees, a Marshal, a Clerk and Treasurer. With this the assemblage settled down to business and the nominations for Trustees were called for by the chairman. E. H. Sampson and B. C. Byrd were placed before the meeting a,nd being the only candidates mentioned were declraed the nominees by acclamation. For Treasurer, Frank K. Towne, the present incumbent was the only mnominee and he was given the place on the ticket by a unanimous vote. R. F. Chilcott was also placed on the ticket as the nominee for Clerk without opposition.

Then began the only contest of the evening when J. J. Rodgers and James T. Coleman were presented to the meeting as candidates for the place of Marshal. With but little comment the choice for the place was submitted to the convention and the nomination was given to Coleman by a vote of 16 as against 8 for Rodgers.

This completed the ticket and a recess was taken for the purpose of preparing the necesary nominating petitions. Blanks for this purpose were circulated and were signed by all those present.

When this work had been completed the meeting was again called to order and some little time devoted to speech making, during which members of the League congratulated themselves on the success of their work and praised the present city officials for the satisfactory conduct of their work. It was decided that the ticket should be designated as the Good Government League Party, and a managing committee composed of T. C. Rice, A. M. Robertson, Henry Martens, A. H. Lanfear, Albert Mansfield and B. L. Werder was selected. With the completion of the business of the evening the meeting, on motion of Mayor Merrill, by a standing vote adjourned in respect to the memory of F. H. Thorpe, who had been one of the most active workers of the League at the last City election.

Delegates to the Grand Parlor which meets at Lake Tahoe were placed in nomniation. The election for delegates will take place at the next regular meeting and a very spirited contest is assured The President was instructed to represent the Parlor at the meeting of the Fourth of July Celebration Committee. Lee Estate Controversy.

The charges made by William McQuillan and Etta M. Sampson against Attorney L. H. Hoefler, the guardian of the two Lee minors ,appear to have no foundation. Mrs. Mary Lee left an estate worth $200,000 to her two children and she nominated Mr. Hoefler as their guardian. Mr. McQuillan brother of Mrs. Lee,charges that the attorney has managed the estate of his wards to his own advantage. Mr. Hoefler has filed a petition asking the court to instruct him as to the care and custody of his wards. From what we know of the management of the estate of the two Lee children we can say that Mr. Hoefler has done his full duty.

The dog poisoner is again at large. He is engaged in his nefarious business on Stambaugh street Several valuable canines in that locality were sent to their happy hunting grounds. Such a person should be publicly lashed through the streets and then sent out of town with a good coating of tar and feathers.

PUSH WELLESLEY PARK

San Francisco Firm Will Promote Sale of Residence Lots.

The Redwod City Realty Company takes pleasure in announcing that the well-known San Francisco firm of Watson, Pond and Biddle have taken the exclusive agency for Wellesley Park. This firm has heretofore operated solely in San Francisco real estate, but have been anxious to operate in outside property, provided they could find something which came up to their ideas of what a sub-division should be. After inspecting quite a number of properties offered them, they unanimously selected Wellesley Park, and in doing so complimented the owners of the park very highly on the manner in which it was laid out and improved, saying it was the best they had seen anywhere.

With this firm in San Francisco, working in conjunction with the Redwod City Realty Co., on this end, together with the fact that the oil tanks will shortly be removed from the front, that the electric road people are preparing plans for laying a re-inforced concrete road along the whole front of the Park, that the owners are even now considering the opening up of a road to connect the Park with Broadway in Dingee Park, and that plans for several houses are now being prepared would indicate a very lively season for this favored locality of our town.

WOODSAWING—The undersigned has a modern steam outfit and can fill orders rapidly. Teaming of all kinds. Apply to Fred Stalter, Stambaugh street, Redwood City. 9-8tf

Assessor's Instructions

To Owners of Real Estate and Personal Property

The law requires each and every person who owns any class of property to annually, during the months of March, April or May, file a statement with the Assessor or his deputy in the county where the property is located. You should give a statement of all property owned by you on the first Monday in March at 12 o'clock m.

If you hold mortgages against others send in a mortgage statement showing amount due on each mortgage on the first Monday in March at 12 o'clock m.

No change can be made by the Assessor after he turns his books over to the Board of Supervisors on the first Monday in July. The Board then sets as a Board of Equalization during the month of July.

Remember, if you fail to give in your assessment you fail to comply with the law and may cause yourself, the Assessor and Tax Collector much trouble, and very likely cause yourself expense.

It is much more satisfactory to the Assessor, as well as to yourself, to have your assessment correct when you go to pay your taxes.

C. D. HAYWARD,
Assessor San Mateo County.

THIS IS CERTAIN

The Proof that Redwood City Readers Cannot Deny.

What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills cure permanently.

Home endorsement should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.

Claus Hadler, 107 Stambaugh, Redwood City, Cal., says: "I will not go back on what I said about Doan's Kidney Pills two and a half years ago, when I publicly recommended them. They proved entirely satisfactory in my case, relieving a dull, tired ache in my back and freeing me of rheumatic pains in my hips and knees. At this time I can say that since my trial of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at D. A. Ryan's Drug Store, I have had no kidney trouble or rheumatism to speak of. To be greatly benefitted as I was by the use of this medicine, is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. I take pleasure in telling of my experience."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
